

CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT WEAKENING

OPPOSITION TO PROPOSAL WILL TRIUMPH IS SAID

Columbus, Jan. 13.—Prediction that the proposed amendment to the federal constitution, prohibiting child labor will not be approved by the Ohio legislature was made here today. A public hearing on the proposed amendment will be held in the house chamber this afternoon. While planks in the Republican and Democratic state platforms endorse the proposal, there is said to be strong opposition to it throughout the state, particularly among farmers. Advocates and opponents of the proposed amendment will speak at today's hearing.

Bills pending in the house today include: By Representative Williams, Lake County, an emergency relief measure for municipalities and school districts; by Walton, Wyandotte, providing for a 2 cent gasoline tax by the coupon system; by Emmons, Summit, authorizing deputy auto registrars to charge a twenty-five cent fee for issuing licenses; by Krueger, Cuyahoga, providing for reclassification of the state's election laws, for pre-primary conventions, dispensing with annual registrations and proposing use of the Massachusetts ballot; by Lipp, Hamilton, providing for appointment of attorney examiners to take testimony in cases before the state utilities commission, so as to relieve the commission's congested docket, and removing employees of the commission from the jurisdiction of the state department of commerce.

The Corn Stalk Club of the general Assembly, comprised of representatives and senators having agricultural interests, organized Monday night for the present session of the legislature. Representative Frank S. Bartlett, Geauga County, was elected president, Representative Charles W. Humes, of Delaware, vice president; Representative Samuel Hunt, Shelby County, secretary treasurer. Bartlett will appoint an executive committee of five. The club will meet again next Monday night.

Legislative leaders said efforts would be made to put the child labor proposal to a vote in the house within two weeks.

An anti-cigarette bill was introduced by Representative S. A. Blessing Miami, who is a Dunkard clergyman. The bill would prohibit the manufacture, sale and smoking of cigarettes.

Representative Abele, Cuyahoga, offered a bill providing that eastern standard, instead of central standard, time shall be the official time for Ohio. Representative Walton put in a bill reducing state auto license taxes to $1 and making the registration permanent as long as the person to whom the license was issued, retains possession of the auto.

OLD WILL PROBATED

Bucyrus, Jan. 13.—The will of the late John Hoffman, Crestline, written over 31 years ago, dated June 27, 1898, has just been admitted to record by probate court here. It was never altered by codicils. The will establishes a precedent, in recent years, for the length of time elapsing between the execution and filing of a will. John Hoffman, Jr., and W. Stahl, who witnessed Mr. Hoffman's signature, died before the will was filed. By terms of the will, the estate goes to the widow, Johanna Hoffman, who is 78 years old.

QUESTION ARISES WHETHER PLAN IS VICTORY OR DEFEAT OF AMERICA

Washington, Jan. 13.—On the heels of the Kellogg-Churchill agreement in Paris, whereby the United States is to get 2 1/2 per cent of the Dawes plan annuities in satisfaction of American war claims, there arose here today a marked division of opinion as to whether the achievement at Paris represents a victory or a defeat for American diplomacy.

While it is true that the American representatives at Paris forced the allied powers to concede the justice of American claims and compelled them to grant the right of equal participation in the German payments, the net result of such an agreement, it was pointed out in senatorial quarters today, is that for the first time since the war, the United States is thus made a direct party to the coalition of powers seeking to compel Germany to pay.

The United States now has a direct stake in the reparations controversy, amounting to 2 1/4 per cent, or some $600,000,000. And in this respect the American position now is no different from the positions of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy.

In this connection the question was raised today in senate circles:

"Suppose Germany defaults in her payments now, and the allies agree to impose punitive measures such as further occupation of German territory, will the United States become an active participant in disciplining Germany?"

The United States has always opposed the application of drastic "sanctions" on Germany, such as the French occupation of the Rhur and other severe measures which the allies, principally France, have taken to bring Germany to her knees.

While the state department is disposed to regard the Paris agreement as a decisive "diplomatic victory," no such opinion prevails in some senate circles. The Dawes plan has always been viewed with a certain amount of suspicion at the capital anyway.

Senator Borah of Idaho, the new chairman of the foreign relations committee, is among those who are convinced that the Dawes plan constitutes the panacea for international ills. Speaking of the Dawes plan and its relation to American economic conditions, Borah said:

"While I do not disparage the value of the Dawes plan yet if I owned a farm and its value depended upon the ultimate success of that plan without some other things of very great moment being done, I should be willing to part with my holdings at the first opportunity."

HARD KNOTS TIED

Four out of every five marriages in Champaign County are successful, if records in the offices of the Clerk of Courts of that county for the year 1924, are correct.

There were 162 licenses issued and thirty-two divorces in the year. There were forty nine petitions for divorce filed during the year.

BISHOPS WILL PASS ON APPEAL OF EX-BISHOP FROM HERESY CHARGE

Cleveland, O., Jan. 13.—Presiding over the Bishop W. A. Leonard of the diocese of Ohio, court of review consisting of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church was constituted here today to pass upon the appeal of Bishop William Montgomery Brown, retired bishop of Arkansas and known as the "bishop of the bolsheviks" from the judgment of the trial court which last spring found him guilty of teaching doctrines not in accordance with those taught by the church. Sentence upon the retired churchman has not yet been passed.

In addition to Bishop Leonard the court, which will pass upon issues of issues of C nonical law includes: Bishop William C. Brown Virginia; Bishop C. B. Brewster, Connecticut; Bishop David Seasmus, Louisiana; Bishop Irving P. Johnson, Colorado; Bishop Wm. W. Webb, Wisconsin; Bishop R. H. Nelson, Albany and Bishop James De Wolf Perry, Rhode Island.

Joseph Schartz, of Dayton, Ohio, chief counsel for Bishop Brown, was to ask that a court of appeals be constituted at which the issues of fact raised by Bishop Brown at his trial last spring might again be considered. A brief filed with the court of review contends that the churchman was convicted of contravening documents not clearly defined in the church standards, nor even set forth by the court.

Charles L. Dibble, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, church advocate, and "chief prosecuting attorney" contends in a rejoinder that the church is under no necessity of justifying the doctrines but that those ordained to teach and preach are bound by their ordination vows to adhere to them.

Bishop Brown's conviction grew out of teachings contained in a book "Christianism and Communism," which has attained a large circulation and been translated into many foreign languages.

Acid Thrower Attacks Woman in Los Angeles

MRS. CLAIRE WILLIAMS.

Much mystery surrounds the maiming of Mrs. Claire Williams, thirty-two, leading Los Angeles modiste. As she stepped from a street car a man and two women approached her, calling her by name. "Here is a bottle of your favorite perfume," the man declared, as he crashed a large bottle of carbolic acid on her head. She was found two hours later, a half mile from her home, her clothing in shreds from the acid and her entire body badly burned.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, attended a meeting of the council of the Dayton Presbytery in Dayton, Monday. The council considered the appropriation of benevolences by the churches in the Presbytery for church enterprises. It was recommended that the amount to be raised by the churches be about $130,000, the same as last year.

A special meeting of the Dayton Presbytery will be held in Dayton, February 2, at 1 p.m. Four or five counties are included in the Presbytery.

Mrs. Beatrice Bourne, wife of Arthur K. Bourne, Jr., has won a New York separation, with alimony of $50 a week. She charged abandonment, and declared the last time she saw her husband he threw her a nickel and said: "There's your alimony." Bourne is the grandson of the late Commodore Frederick C. Bourne, Singer sewing machine magnate, who left an estate of $41,000,000.

DIGNITARIES OF CATHOLIC CHURCH ASSIST IN LAST RITES FOR ARCHBISHOP MOELLER

Cincinnati, Jan. 13.—The largest number of high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church ever gathered together in this city, attended the funeral services at St. Peter's cathedral Tuesday morning for the most Rev. Harry Moeller, late archbishop of Cincinnati.

Hundreds of priests, seminarians, members of various secular and religious orders and those of the public who possessed tickets of admission crowded to its doors the vast edifice which for 20 years had been the seat of Archbishop Moeller's diocesan jurisdiction, as the pontifical requiem high mass was sung by his Eminence

Patrick Cardinal Hayes of New York City.

Among the mourners was the Rt. Rev. Pietro Fumagalli Biondi, apostolic delegate to Washington and official representative of the pope. The most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, preached the funeral sermon. Moist eyed and spellbound the audience listened to his eloquence as he recited the virtues of the dead churchman.

After the church services the body was placed in a mausoleum at the new St. Josephs cemetery, Price Hill. Thousands of persons were unable to enter the cathedral and remained outside unimpaired of the falling snow waiting in the hope of getting to see the body.

SOVIETS CHEERED BY HUGHES ACTION

Moscow, Jan. 13.—Soviet government circles here greatly cheered by news of the resignation of Secretary Hughes today were disposed to regard his retirement as the prelude to Russian-American understanding. Hughes' name always has been an anathema to soviet Russia.

His resignation here is attributed to pressure from financial interests in the United States who favor some working arrangement with soviet Russia.

CHECK WORKER IS SENT TO ASYLUM

Charles A. Icenhower, New Burlington, was committed to the Dayton State Hospital by Probate Judge S. C. Wright Monday at the request held in Probate Court when he was adjudged to be a lunatic.

Icenhower was arrested Saturday and an affidavit charging him with feeble-mindedness was made out against him, growing out of proof that he had been passing checks without funds. The affidavit of feeble-mindedness was dismissed at the request to be replaced by one of lunacy.

MANY VISITORS HAVE TELEPHONE OPERATION EXPLAINED ON FIRST DAY OF VISITORS' WEEK

Curious questions! Exclamations of awe! Satisfied subscribers! Thus "Telephone Week" was ushered into Xenia yesterday.

Unusual interest in personally observing the operation of a telephone central office was displayed by a large number of visitors to the local office, according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company here.

"We took our guests over our entire plant and explained all the mysteries away. It was almost as much fun for us as it was for the visitors."

If the same interest continues to be manifested throughout the remainder of the week, the telephone offices being open to the public from 8:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. until Saturday night, it is probable that the 300,000 visitors mark of every hundred will be reached, Mr. Cleaver said. Reports from other places indicate the same interest as shown here.

Telephone people here were greatly amused by some of the remarks that were heard. Among them were: "I didn't see even one of those operators chewing gum."

"Those girls do not seem to have time to read. Are they always that busy?"

"What's in those small holes they put those iron things in. Is that a part of the machinery?"

The speed with which the operators connected and disconnected subscribers while the visitors watched never failed to bring exclamations of wonder. The fact, too, that the girls never looked around but always kept their eyes on the switchboards caused new ideas concerning telephone operators to fill the minds of the watchers.

"We believe," Manager Cleaver said, "that a visit to a telephone office will do more toward establishing better relations between the public and our employees than all the books that might be written. Our people are always busy, always trying to please and succeeding in better than 99 cases out of every hundred. We want the people to see us at work and we wish we could interrupt service sufficiently to introduce every operator to every visitor. Of course that cannot be done, but when the visitor departs after a trip through one of our offices, he or she has a new respect for those who make American telephone service the standard of the world."

MONEY DEMAND HAS INCREASED CIRCULATIONS

Washington, Jan. 13.—Heavy demand for "cold cash" increases money circulations $330,000,000, between August and January, bringing the total now in the hands of the public to approximately $4,992,000,000, the treasury department announced today.

"The larger demand for currency has been in response, in addition to seasonal influences, to an increase in payroll requirements of industrial establishments and to a larger volume of business at somewhat higher prices," the federal reserve board declared.

The growth of the volume of money in circulation has been accompanied by a continuation of an increase in demand deposits of banks. Early in 1924 deposits accumulated but were relatively inactive.

Demand for federal reserve credit increased during the last half of the year by $500,000,000 and January 1 credit in use amounted to substantially the same figure as a year ago, according to the board.

Volume of federal reserve note circulation was increased about $100,000,000 while cash reserves of reserve banks declined $275,000,000.

While earnings assets of the reserve banks have shown no net increase since the spring of 1922, loans and investments of member banks have increased about $5,000,000,000 and are at present the highest on record," the statement said.

Figures showed total investments of all bonds of the United States approximately $46,000,000,000 an increase of nearly two billion dollars since 1923.

"The extremely low level of money rates in New York in the last half of 1924 has been a factor in encouraging a large volume of capital flotations, both domestic and foreign," board officials said.

Capital flotations during the year were larger than at any time since the war. Foreign flotations exceeding a billion dollars were the largest on record by several hundred million dollars and twice as large as corresponding flotations during the same period in London. Foreign borrowers in addition established large credits with banks in the United States.

"The board asserted that domestic securities exceeded two billion dollars last year.

BANK COMMISSIONER INVOLVED IN KANSAS CHARGES OF BRIBERY

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 13.—Filing of an ouster suit by Atty. Gen. Griffith against Carl J. Peterson, state bank commissioner, scheduled for this morning, is the latest phase of the pardon bribery investigation which resulted in the arrest yesterday of former Governor Jonathan M. Davis and his son Russell.

The attorney general's action followed his demand last yesterday that the banking commissioner resign after Griffith had shown Peterson an affidavit sworn by A. L. Oswald, an attorney of Hutchinson, which stated that Peterson had been involved in an alleged "deal" to obtain the pardon of Walter S. Grundy, banker of Hutchinson. In the meantime, under the leadership of James Finley, chairman of the legislative investigating committee of the last session of the legislature, plans went forward this morning for an inquiry into the entire pardon situation under the Davis administration.

A concurrent resolution for the investigation will be introduced in both houses this afternoon. Former Governor Davis and his family retired last night to their farm in Bourbon County, where they are in seclusion. There is revival here this morning of talk that a special grand jury will be called. Officials close to the investigation, say it is possible that a portion of the grand jury will be circulated to give an official clearing house for the mass of pardon bribery rumors that are filling the capital. Fred W. Pollman, banker of Lacygne, whose evidence resulted in the arrest of Davis and his son, was expected here today to return his pardon to Governor Ben S. Paulen.

WIFE HAS INSPIRED FORMER PUGILIST TO GET EDUCATION

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 10.—Fred R. Wedge, who has just announced his intention of abandoning an academic career to become an evangelist, has led one of the most interesting and picturesque of lives.

Born in the woods of Wisconsin, near Lake Superior, in 1880, Wedge grew up to young manhood with but the barest elements of a rudimentary education. His father died when he was 2 1/2 years of age, and his mother when he was eight.

At twenty Wedge became a welter-weight prizefighter and remained in the ring six years.

When he was twenty-two young Wedge fell in love with a frail young woman choir singer. This girl fired him with the ambition to educate himself. She assisted him in doing the work of the grammar school grades at home after he had completed his work at the lumber camp. Later he took high school work and entered the University of Nebraska in 1910, marrying the choir singer about the same time. She is the daughter of Dr. John Tracy, of Omaha, Neb. Wedge was licensed a Presbyterian minister from the Southern Arizona Presbytery in 1911.

During the war Wedge served as boxing instructor at Camp Grant, Ill. Here he contracted tuberculosis and was discharged from the Army. With the words of doctors that he stood very little chance of recovery still ringing in his ears, Wedge, his wife and their son went to Texas and Arizona where, after a heroic battle for his life, he fully regained his health.

Continually aided by his wife, Wedge entered the University of Arizona at Tucson and graduated with an A. B. degree in 1920. For a short time that year he was superintendent of schools at Benson, Arizona.

In 1921 Wedge entered Harvard and remained in Cambridge one year. He then returned to Arizona and was fully ordained a Presbyterian minister in 1922.

Wedge is now working for his Ph.D. degree at the University of California. He expects to have it by next May.

While working for this Ph.D. degree Wedge wrote a thesis on the I. W. W. and exposed the lack of religious influence back of such anti-social organizations. He lived for months among the I. W. W. in order to get accurate information.

After graduating from the University of California in May, Wedge plans to remain in the Bay region, where he will take up his duties as an evangelist.

GET ADDITIONAL CAPITAL BY SELLING OWN BONDS

The securities of Federal Land Bankers are not guaranteed by the Federal government in any way.

Federal Land Bankers made loans to farmers in amounts of not less than $100.00, nor more than $10,000, based on a 50 per cent. appraised value of the land. When a Federal Land Bank extends credit to farmers, it takes mortgages on the farms. As the loans are made the capital of the bank is tied up. To provide additional capital the Land Bank sells its own bonds which are secured by the mortgages on the farms to which the Land Bank originally extended credit. The security back of the Federal Land Bank bonds consists of many large and small mortgages on farm-lands the surplus account of the bank, and its original capital. There are twelve Federal Land Banks created

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts will hold a meeting in the Parish House, Whiteman Street, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of continuing the re-registration and renewal of memberships of old members.

Scouts must serve for five years before they are eligible to receive the Scout badge awarded for veteran service, according to Mr. Kingsbury.

Through denominational changes, new calls to pastors and the trend of other events, bringing new faces to local pulpits, Dr. Proudfit has served in Xenia longer than any other member of the Xenia Ministerial Association.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Governor Donahey, in his message to the State Legislature Monday, outlined an ambitious program of activities for that body. He preached economy, urged that the state live within its income and recommended important changes in legislation affecting points of interest to every citizen of the state.

Although he is still dealing with a Legislature largely of opposite politics, there is a promise of harmony, between the executive and the law-makers for his second term of office.

Legislators, beginning their deliberations at this term have resolved upon different tactics in handling the political differences. Instead of antagonism they promise every effort to co-operate with the governor during their terms. This should not only prove gratifying to the governor but should bring forth good fruit for the state.

Quibbling, because of political differences, failed to produce anything of value in the last General Assembly. Now harmony, consideration and a spirit of co-operation will have their inning and the results should be much more satisfactory.

The message of the governor shows that the public utilities commission, is still an interesting bone for him to pick over.

His suggestion for an appropriation to secure expert advice for the commission in settling utilities controversies may be a wise one. The expenditure, in this case, might prove an actual saving to utility patrons by resulting in just disposition of appeals. The experiment might be one worth trying.

The governor's attack on the election registration system has its recommendation of economy, in saving the salaries paid poll officials, but it will be greeted by a protest from the cities.

The governor suggests the registration be held only every four years. In some wards in a city the entire population would change in that time, leaving many not qualified to vote. And when, through a technicality or for other reasons, any citizen is deprived of the opportunity to cast his ballot, the resulting howl of protest will be heard for miles. This, whether they take the trouble to vote or not.

The broadening of primary laws to permit independent voters or those who do not wish to express a political preference the chance to express a choice for nomination, seems a just plan.

The suggestion that chiefs of police be removed from the pale of civil service, making them directly responsible for their positions to the mayor or manager, would involve the position in the old toils of the political system. It would serve to keep down the men in the ranks, destroy ambition and desire for police service, and in some cases would result in a constant change of police officials that would work to the detriment of police department efficiency.

The governor's suggestion to have common pleas judges of less populous counties occupy the benches in counties where the dockets are crowded instead of appointing extra judges, is already in use but is far from effective. It results in a system where the county judges of one county are constantly working in other counties. What the governor should have suggested, if possible, was a scheme to make the common pleas judges of the more populous counties go to work. Lagging justice in the cities is usually the result of too little work on the bench. An official "prod" might serve to better relieve the situation.

SEES A REAL AMERICANISM

Americanism, that much used and much misunderstood term, is defined in Century Magazine, by Glenn Frank, its editor. Americanism must be selective, rather than sentimental, says Mr. Frank, that is, it must be an enthusiasm rather than an obligation.

"Patriotism is a result rather than a cause of sound national life," he says. "The professional patriots put the cart before the horse. The worthiest patriotism is not merely the will to defend that arises in war-time. It is that prideful sense of satisfaction that comes to a creative people when they are working successfully for the increase, the enrichment, and the spiritual unity of their national life, a sense of satisfaction that merges imperceptibly into a determination further to develop and faithfully to defend the common life they are creating."

Mr. Frank gives six things that Americanism is not, and he shows why. They are:

Americanism is not an uncritical belief in the goodness of all things American just because they are American.

Americanism is not whistling to keep up courage.

Americanism is not a matter of race.

Americanism is not belief in the infallibility of the majority.

Americanism is not slavery to the opinions of the fathers. He ends his article by saying: "I suspect that, if we found him who is doing his best for America and saying the least about his Americanism."—Ohio State Journal.

TELLING IT TO THE CHILDREN

Well, you see I met your mother at a wedding, long ago, and though I was four and twenty, up to then I didn't know that in all our busy city, which I've traveled up and down, there was such a lovely creature, with such lustrous eyes of brown; but the minute that I saw her, I just stared and stared and stared. And right then I should have hugged her and have kissed her, if I dared!

She was acting as the bridesmaid, I was best man for the groom. And of course the bride was lovely, but the loveliest in the room. Wasn't just then getting married? For I couldn't keep from staring at your mother, I declare, and I couldn't keep from thinking, as we knelt there side by side, there must be another wedding, and then she must be the bride.

Well, the wedding party scattered, bride and groom and guests and all. And that lovely bridesmaid if she'd let me come to call.

And she blushed and gave permission, when Sunday evening came I bought a box of candy, with a very famous name.

And I went up there to see her and her Pa and Ma were there; And I wanted to go to kiss her—but of course I didn't dare.

Now that's how I met your mother—and 'twas twenty years ago. And there was another wedding—just the one I'd longed to know. For one lovely Sunday evening when I went up there to call, I caught her up and kissed her, as we lingered in the hall, and we planned right then to marry—it was love that made me bold—Now that's how I met your mother—but don't tell her that I told.

FOLLOW FATHERS

Cadiz, Jan. 13.—Sheriff John Quigley, Republican, and Commissioner John Rea, Democrat, are following in the footsteps of their fathers as Harrison County officials. Quigley has just taken up the duties of the office held by his father, Albert Quigley, 40 years ago, who was active in Harrison County politics following his return from the Civil War. Rea is the first Democrat elected as a commissioner of the county since his father, A. J. Rea, was similarly chosen forty-three years ago. The county is strongly Republican.

Mrs. M. S.: "Kindly send me a good recipe for stuffed peppers."

Answer: Stuffed Peppers are stuffed in many ways. Most generally with ordinary hash and bread crumbs scattered on top. Often with mixed chopped (left over) vegetables mixed with bread crumbs. But here is a recipe which is particularly delicious: Cheese-Stuffed Baked Peppers: Prepare your green sweet peppers by cutting them in half, lengthwise, removing seeds, then parboiling them by covering with hot water and letting boil for about ten minutes (this removes that strong taste from the peppers and also helps to make them more tender when baked). Now drain them from the water and stuff them with the following: Mix together one and one-half cups of either cream cheese or cottage cheese, three well-beaten eggs, one-half cup of bread crumbs, one tablespoon of melted butter, one-half teaspoon of salt, a generous pinch of pepper and a dash of paprika. This amount of filling will stuff four pepper halves. Bake in a moderate oven till nicely browned and well heated through. Serve very hot.

B. M.: "Kindly republish the Pepper Relish recipe which appeared the week of October twentieth."

Answer: I do not always undertake to reprint recipes which have appeared recently; for my readers can go to the circulation room of the newspaper, look over the files of the paper, and copy out such recipes for themselves. You see my column space is so limited and there are so many Housekeeper Friends who ask for recipes which have never appeared. But the one you ask for is a short one:

Pepper Relish for Immediate Use: Mix together one minced, uncooked head of cabbage and six large, green sweet peppers also uncooked and chopped (seeds removed). Drain for a few minutes, then add one cup of sugar a scant one-fourth cup of salt two tablespoons of mustard seed and enough cold vinegar just to cover. This makes two quarts of relish.

Miss S.: "How can I wash a light blue flannel dress?"

Answer: I think it would be safer to dry-clean it with gasoline as washing might shrink it. Or, better yet, have a professional cleaning establishment do it, and it will no doubt be as good as new.

Today's Talks

THIS BEAUTIFUL WORLD

Life is more than a "lovely adventure" as some would have it. It is a serious proposition to most of us in which we reach into the very depths of all experience that we may rise strong for any daily task.

Withal this world is a very beautiful place. And the more one has gone through pain and suffering drunk from the bitter cup of disappointment and loss, the more is all beauty loved and appreciated.

To me the two most beautiful things in this world are a beautiful soul and a beautiful flower.

If my wisdom was a hundred times more than it is and my experience over the earth also a hundred times as vast as it is now, I would still marvel at the beauty of flowers.

It does seem as though flowers were the visible expressions of God's thoughts planted here and there and everywhere, so that everybody might see and love and learn.

No matter where you see beauty, be it the exquisite carving in a piece of furniture, the delicate tooling and placing of leathers in a hand bound book, the studied colors of a picture or the natural blending of beauty in a sunset—it is the same, always inspiring and full of the good that makes this world a place in which men are able to be brave.

Our characters are shaped by our view point. And if we have vision we can see right over the unpleasant and sordid and shape our minds and hearts so that our feet may lead us into pleasant and happy paths.

We must look for beauty, however. It is everywhere. And the more we look for it the more we are sure to have of it.

COUGHS

Quick Way to Stop Them

Persistent, racking coughing, which by rapidly weakening your entire system lays you open to more dangerous infections, can be checked often with the first dose of that old-time tried and proved remedy

—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. And there's a reason. Doctors say there is nothing like pine-tar to quickly loosen and remove the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing, while the honey both gives a pleasant taste and helps soothe irritation. It is often astonishing how quickly this combination relieves the stubbornest cough.

But be sure you get the original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey, and no substitute. Dr. Bell's has been known for over a quarter of a century as the best. It is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine-tar, honey and other quick-acting healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—fine for spasmodic cough. If you want the best, a medicine that often relieves the severest cough overnight, make sure you get Dr. Bell's. Only 30c at any good druggist's.

PLANS FOR ANNUAL LEAGUE DINNER ARE COMPLETED AT MEET

Arrangements were completed for the Social Service League annual dinner to be held at Central High School cafeteria, Tuesday, January 20, under the management of Mrs. Pearl Wolf, at the monthly meeting of the executive board of the league, at City Hall, Monday night.

Miss Allegra Hawes, read a letter from Governor Vic Donahey in answer to the resolution sent him a few weeks ago, requesting that the capacity of the Institution for the Feeble Minded be enlarged. Governor Donahey assured the league that the matter was being given attention and that he would recommend this enlargement. The resolutions sent had been

GOAL IS FIXED

A budget of $5,500 has been set as the goal of the annual Social Service League drive for funds, to be launched at the banquet next Tuesday evening at Central High School.

The city has been divided into 125 districts, to be covered by the solicitors, all of the districts being small enough to cover in an hour's time.

The solicitors and patrons of the league are to be inspired with the needs of the league at the annual banquet where plans for the drive will be outlined.

Indorsed by Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz; County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman, the Parent-Teacher Associations, the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

Mrs. Emma McCalmont made a report of the antitubercular seal sale as totaling $670 in Xenia City. Miss Bertha E. Trebels reported a return of $176.83 from the free will offering made on the city streets, Christmas week. She said that many people received by the singers of the Christ-had expressed a high appreciation of the beautiful custom of singing carols during the Yuletide in Xenia.

The league voted to send a letter of thanks to V. L. Faires and his manual training class of seventy boys at Central High School, who made and donated seventy toys to the league at Christmas.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE HAS BUSY CHRISTMAS PERIOD

Christmas month was a busy month at the Social Service League and 683 calls were received at the headquarters during that period. The calls included both those who asked for relief and those who brought cheer for the unfortunate.

The following disbursements were made: $32.45 worth of donated food; $41 worth of bedding and other household equipment; $168 worth of clothing and shoes, the larger amount of this being given to school children; $48 worth of milk for the tubercular and undernourished; $10.60 was spent for medicine, dental work and equipment; one stranded man was given a meal.

Besides co-operating with the organizations of Xenia the league did work for the following out-of-town societies: The Indianapolis Welfare Society, the Ohio Public Health Association and the Hope Cottage Rescue Home, Cincinnati.

The Second U. P. Church, Trinity and First M. E. Churches and the Twentieth Century Club made garments and comforts for the organization.

One hundred and sixty-four persons and twenty organizations donated the following cheer to the poor: two tons of coal, $104 in cash, 225 pounds of candy, ten pounds nuts, four dozen oranges, fifty pounds flour, 250 toys, twenty-seven story books, fifty pounds cottage cheese, ten gallons milk, twenty-one loaves of bread, eight chickens, one and one-half bushel apples, thirty-eight bottles salad dressing, buns, jellies, 410 garments and many other things.

"But the greatest thing given out by the league is the service and cheer and encouragement brought to the fainting hearts of the poor by the hundreds of people who are supporting the league," Mrs. L. R. Robertson, executive secretary of the league, said in commenting on the month's work.

YOUNG FRANK GOTCH BEATS BULL GOSSARD IN MAIN EVENT OF EAGLES WRESTLING SHOW

By L. J. WONES

The wrestling matches staged at Eagles Hall Monday night were rather short but chuck full of action especially the main go and the preliminary. Curly Wones of Cleveland, who was to have grappled in the main event with Jack Armstrong, sent word that it would be impossible for him to work as he has a bad case of pleurisy. Promoter Carlin then secured "Cyclone" O'Dell of Chicago, who is now staying at Springfield, to grapple with Armstrong. He shifted them from the main event to the semi windup.

Armstrong won the match taking the second and third falls in four minutes. O'Dell won the first fall with a leg split in a little over four minutes of fast grappling. The second and third falls were a trifle slow and the Newark lad won the second with a toe hold while he won the match with a pin hold.

The main go between Young Frank Gotch, champion of the Middle West and "Bull" Gossard, London, was the best go of the evening. Gotch won when the scissors he applied to Gossard broke the London grappler's rib and tore several ligaments loose. Gotch was several pounds heavier and did not have to stretch himself in winning it seemed.

Gossard displayed his usual rough form and his pet grip was a toehold which by the way won the first fall for him after twenty-four minutes of tussling. Gotch then made a nice comeback and won second fall with a body scissors in five minutes. Gossard said he would like to meet the proposed loop the use of the Central High School gymnasium two championship games each week for the league pounds and Gotsch said that he would.

In the event they are matched again games.

and Gotch makes the middleweight limit Gossard will make things plenty tough for him.

The curtain raiser between Young Wead and Speedy Crawford, colored welter, both of this city, turned out to be a good match. Both boys received many hard bumps and tackling, rolling, pushing and twisting was brought into the limelight. They grappled fifteen minutes with honors about even. They received a good hand on several occasions. This was the colored lad's first appearance in the ring while it was Wead's second.

The Eagles Athletic committee was satisfied with the show and will let Promoter Carlin put on another go January 25 at the Eagles Hall. A small crowd witnessed the matches. Pete Hartley of Springfield refereed the prelim and semi while Charles Palmer worked the main event.

PASTORS OF GREENE COUNTY TO ATTEND ANNUAL SESSIONS

Local ministers are looking forward with interest to the sixth annual Ohio Pastors' Convention, in Columbus, January 26-28, one feature of which will be a dinner at which they have invited senators and representatives from this district and county to be their guests.

Greene County pastors who have made reservations for the convention include the Rev. W. P. Hartman, Cedarville; the Rev. V. F. Brown, and the Rev. A. J. Furstenberger, Xenia; the Rev. W. B. Leis, Fairfield and Dr. W. R. McClesney, Cedarville.

A final drive to obtain a large attendance from this county is in progress this week, under the direction of the Rev. Charles P. Proudft, pastor of the Second U. P. Church, Xenia.

Governor Vic Donahey, Lieutenant Governor-elect Charles Lewis, Attorney General C. C. Crabbe and Speaker Silver of the House of Representatives have accepted invitations of the Ohio Council of Columbus to attend the dinner and give addresses. All members of the legislature are being invited by the clergymen to their respective constituencies.

Advance registration two weeks before the opening date of the convention exceeds the total attendance at last year's meeting. The banquet will be held on the evening of the second day of the convention, Tuesday, January 27.

The convention proper will be devoted to discussion of various phases of church work in which ministers of all denominations have a common interest, led by pastors of practical experience in the respective fields.

The Pastors' convention is an annual event, held under the auspices of the Ohio Council of Churches, which comprise sixteen Protestant denominations. This year, full responsibility for arrangement of the program and promoting attendance was left to a committee chosen by the ministers of the state.

MERCHANTS OPPOSE AD SOLICITORS

The Advertisers' Association of Urbana has come into being as a result of continued and all too frequent solicitation of merchants to advertise in exceptional mediums. A recent canvass of the business district of Urbana by two cook book promoters is said to have precipitated the move.

The new association agrees "not to advertise in any cook book, programs, periodicals or other mediums unless the medium is indorsed by the association."

Merchants are constantly solicited for extra advertising, other than their regular newspaper appropriation, it is said, which has put them "up in arms."

on $1,000 bond. Preliminary hearing was set for Monday morning, January 19.

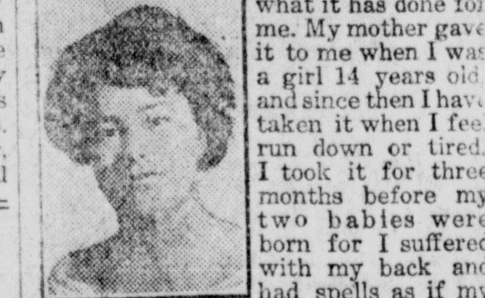

The six men, William Anderson, Charles A. Paul Rountree, H. C. Scott, Clarence Sullinger and E. L. Carlman were arrested Monday morning by Carson Pratt, Dayton, Deputy United States Marshall and his deputy, J. H. Wagner assisted by the sheriff's office.

Anderson is accused of stealing the rifles and his five companions are said to have bought them.

AN OPERATION RECOMMENDED

Avoided by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I cannot give too much praise to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me. My mother gave it to me when I was a girl 14 years old and since then I have taken it when I feel run down or tired. I took it for three months before my two babies were born for I suffered with my back and had spells as if my heart was affected, and it helped me a lot. The doctors told me at one time that I would have to have an operation. I thought I would try 'Pinkham's,' as I call it, first. In two months I was all right and had no operation. I firmly believe 'Pinkham's' cured me. Everyone who saw me after that remarked that I looked so well. I only have to take medicine occasionally, not but I always keep a couple of bottles by me. I recommend it to women who speak to me about their health. I have also used your Sanative Wash and like it very much." — Mrs. E. GOULD, 4000 East Side Boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal.

Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been performed.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO PUT ON GOOD SOLID FLESH

Eminent European Specialist, Dr. Ciaramelli, says: "If underweight, worn-out, or run-down, follow this advice; and watch results:

It is not what you eat or how much you eat but insufficient gland action (due to advancing years, over-work, sickness, or worry) that makes you flabby, bony, and scrawny looking. Worn out, dried up glands make it impossible to form flesh and strength. Yet many people who eat less have good firm flesh, normal weight, and are full of life and energy because their glands are working full force.

Formerly the recognized power of fresh organic glands to put on flesh that stays firm, and makes nervous, anaemic folks strong and even tempered was confined to rich people. But now everyone who has tried doctoring with ordinary tonics and medicines can purchase a combination of pure organic glands, phosphates (for the Nerves) and iron (for the blood) for a few cents at any drug store, merely asking for Kath. This Kath is known to rebuild exhausted glands without the use of drugs.

Make This Test:
First weigh and measure yourself. Next take the small tablets of glands, roots and herbs (as found

RAISE OBJECTION TO TRACTION APPRAISAL

An objection to appraisal of the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Traction Company at present was filed in United States District Court in Dayton Monday in the form of a memorandum by the First Wisconsin Trust Company.

Authorization for the appraisal has not been given by Federal Judge Smith Hickenlooper but it is understood that he was being asked for permission to spend nearly $750 for one.

The complainants claim, that no purpose will be served unless the court is going to order sale of the properties immediately. The traction line is under receivership.

Receivers are seeking an appraisal with the view of bringing the road to the attention of possible buyers, it is thought, although nothing definite in this regard has been filed.

BUYS INTEREST IN PIQUA THEATERS

C. F. Ridenour, Piqua, former Xenian, has purchased controlling interest in The Piqua Amusement Company, which controls Piqua's three theaters.

Two of the theaters are now being used and the third is dark, and the theater building will be sold soon to be converted into a business building. Mr. Ridenour, who was formerly connected in an editorial capacity with the Gazette and the Republican is now president of the Piqua Call Company, publishers of the Piqua Daily Call.

BRINGING UP FATHER

The Husband Tamer

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "The Luxury of Love" etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE protests to her husband,

ANDREW CLEVE, a young lawyer, that he has made her a tamer of other women's husbands, forcing her to do so much entertaining of his clients that he sacrifices her to his business. She goes on a visit to her sister.

CAROL WILLOUGHBY, who, with her husband,

KEITH WILLOUGHBY, lives in a country club colony near Chicago. But Keith, like Andrew, seeks to use Patricia's charm as an asset, trying to persuade her to intercede in his behalf with

GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, whom she has met through Andrew. Patricia is disturbed by Keith's attentions to ISOBEL DRAKE, the country club widow. Finding that she can come between them by yielding to Keith's urging that she invite Hewitt to dinner, she does so, reluctantly, as Hewitt has avowed his love for her.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXXIII—FATE'S CRUEL TRICKS

PATRICIA had not planned what excuse she would give her sister for departing so suddenly for New York so soon after her arrival from there. She could think only of getting away from Gregory Hewitt and his love-making, and Isobel Drake and her attempts to win Keith from Carol.

"I'll warn Carol once more before I go," she decided, as she went down to breakfast. "And then I'm through. If I'd stayed on here, I'd have done all I could, but I simply can't do any more now. Keith's old enough to have some sense—and so's Carol, for that matter!"

But she had no need to make excuses for her imminent departure, since that departure was indefinitely delayed. She was still at breakfast, gloomily eating oatmeal, which she detested, and wondering why Keith didn't realize that she might like to see one of the newspapers that he had monopolized, when a telegram was brought to her.

"Sailing today Berengaria," it read. "Important business England. Have sub-let apartment; better stay where you are; my return indefinite." And it was signed, "Andrew."

Patricia glared at the yellow paper for a moment, then blinked rapidly to keep back the tears. Andy was going abroad without her! To stay indefinitely! He knew how she adored England, where she hadn't been since they went there on their honeymoon; he knew how she loved to travel, and then he went rushing off like this, without even saying that he wished she were going, too! She could have followed him on the next steamer—if he'd wanted her to. For the moment she quite forgot her ultimatum of a short time before—that she didn't want to live with him any more unless he let her settle down and have a home. She forgot everything except the appalling fact that Andy didn't seem to love her any more, and was rushing off to England.

In desperation she tried to get him on the long distance telephone. He could not be reached at his office. She tried Linda Boyce next—surely Linda would have seen him recently, and could tell whether he was looking well or not. But Linda's maid answered. Mrs. Boyce was not at home; she was sailing that morning for England, on the Berengaria.

"She's going on the same steamer with Andy!" wailed Patricia, and putting her hand down on her crossed arms, wept tears both salt and bitter. That the maid had said that Mr. Boyce was going too meant nothing at all. Linda was a husband tamer; she wouldn't be averse to keeping her hand in by trying it on Andy!

Hearing Carol approaching, she dried her eyes hastily, and was calm enough when her sister came into the room.

"Did you get him?" Carol asked. "Oh, that's too bad. Patsy, you haven't forgotten that you said you'd take me shopping, have you? Now that you've got me interested in clothes again I'd really like to get some."

The prospect of going shopping made Patricia long to throw herself into the lake. How could she do it? To sit and watch parading mannequins, and select models that might suit Carol, and then hear measurements discussed and appointments made—it would be deadly. But she made herself smile, and dressed for the street as quickly as possible, though it seemed as if her heavy heart must weigh down her heels.

"Telephone, Patricia," Keith called to her, as she was putting on her gloves. Then, as she came down the stairs, "It's a woman's voice."

Patricia shrugged her shoulders wearily. "I don't care who it is," she muttered. How cruel it was of Andy to go off like that!

There was a moment's delay after she answered. Then suddenly, "Hello," in Gregory Hewitt's husky tones.

"Oh, Greg, I'm so glad to hear from you!" she exclaimed. "I was simply desperate. Andy's gone off to England without me." She could hardly speak the words without crying.

"Has he now? Well, lunch with me and we'll tear him to shreds."

"Oh, but I—I'm going shopping with my sister."

"I'll take Carol," exclaimed Keith, hurrying across the room to her side. "Go with him; you may get a chance to say a good word for me."

"I'll say no good words for anybody, Keith WilloUGHBY," she told him as she hung up the receiver, half-laughing and half-crying. "I've said too many for everybody, it seems to me."

And all the way into town her thoughts whirled like a pinwheel. Andy and Linda Boyce—their ship would be pulling out just now, and they'd be planning about seats at the table and deck chairs near together. Gregory Hewitt and herself—well, she might be playing with fire, but Andy had touched the match that started the blaze, when he introduced Hewitt and told her to "be nice to him."

"My life just isn't worth living," she told herself, heedless of Carol's voice eagerly discussing fashions. "I might as well wreck it completely; Andy's shown me that he doesn't love me any more!"

CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT WEAKENING

OPPOSITION TO PROPOSAL WILL TRIUMPH IS SAID

Columbus, Jan. 13.—Prediction that the proposed amendment to the federal constitution, prohibiting child labor will not be approved by the Ohio legislature was made here today. A public hearing on the proposed amendment will be held in the house chamber this afternoon. While planks in the Republican and Democratic state platforms endorse the proposal, there is said to be strong opposition to it throughout the state, particularly among farmers. Advocates and opponents of the proposed amendment will speak at today's hearing.

Bills pending in the house today include: By Representative Williams, Lake County, an emergency relief measure for municipalities and school districts; by Walton, Wyandotte, providing for a 2 cent gasoline tax by the coupon system; by Emmons, Summit, authorizing deputy auto registrars to charge a twenty-five cent fee for issuing licenses; by Krueger, Cuyahoga, providing for recodification of the state's election laws, for pre-primary conventions, dispensing with annual registrations and proposing use of the Massachusetts ballot; by Lipp, Hamilton, providing for appointment of attorney examiners to take testimony in cases before the state utilities commission, so as to relieve the commission's congested docket, and removing employees of the commission from the jurisdiction of the state department of commerce.

The Corn Stalk Club of the general Assembly, comprised of representatives and senators having agricultural interests, organized Monday night for the present session of the legislature. Representative Frank S. Bartlett, Geauga County, was elected president, Representative Charles W. Humes, of Delaware, vice president; Representative Samuel Hunt, Shelby County, secretary treasurer. Bartlett will appoint an executive committee of five. The club will meet again next Monday night.

Legislative leaders said efforts would be made to put the child labor proposal to a vote in the house within two weeks.

An anti-cigarette bill was introduced by Representative S. A. Blessing Miami, who is a Dunkard clergyman. The bill would prohibit the manufacture, sale and smoking of cigarettes.

Representative Able, Cuyahoga, offered a bill providing that eastern standard, instead of the time of day, shall be the official time for Ohio. Representative Walton put in a bill reducing state auto license taxes to $1 and making the registration permanent as long as the person to whom the license was issued, retains possession of the auto.

No other business was transacted at the meeting Monday night. Mr. Fraver was only recently elected commander and had not qualified to serve.

OLD WILL PROBATED

Bucyrus, Jan. 13.—The will of the late John Hoffman, Crestline, written over 31 years ago, dated June 27, 1898, has just been admitted to record by probate court here. It was never altered by codicils. The will establishes a precedent, in recent years, for the length of time elapsing between the execution and filing of a will. John Hoffman, Jr., and W. Stahl, who witnessed Mr. Hoffman's signature, died before the will was filed. By terms of the will, the estate goes to the widow, Johanna Hoffman, who is 78 years old.

QUESTION ARISES WHETHER PLAN IS VICTORY OR DEFEAT OF AMERICA

Washington, Jan. 13.—On the heels of the Kellogg-Churchill agreement in Paris, whereby the United States is to get 2 1/2 per cent of the Dawes plan annuities in satisfaction of American war claims, there arose here today a marked division of opinion as to whether the achievement at Paris represents a victory or a defeat for American diplomacy.

While it is true that the American representatives at Paris forced the allied powers to concede the justice of American claims and compelled them to grant the right of equal participation in the German payments, the net result of such an agreement, it was pointed out in senatorial quarters today, is that for the first time since the war, the United States is thus made a direct party to the coalition of powers seeking to compel Germany to pay.

The United States now has a direct stake in the reparations controversy, amounting to 2 1/4 percent, or some $600,000,000. And in this respect the American position now is no different from the positions of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy.

In this connection the question was raised today in senate circles: "Suppose Germany defaults in her payments now, and the allies agree to impose punitive measures such as further occupation of German territory, will the United States become an active participant in disciplining Germany?"

The United States has always opposed the application of drastic "sanctions" on Germany, such as the French occupation of the Ruhr and other severe measures which the allies, principally France, have taken to bring Germany to her knees.

While the state department is disposed to regard the Paris agreement as a decisive "diplomatic victory," no such opinion prevails in some senate circles. The Dawes plan has always been viewed with a certain amount of suspicion at the capital anyway.

Senator Borah of Idaho, the new chairman of the foreign relations committee, is among those who are convinced that the Dawes plan constitutes the panacea for international ills. Speaking of the Dawes plan and its relation to American economic conditions, Borah said:

"While I do not disparage the value of the Dawes plan yet if I owned a farm and its value depended upon the ultimate success of that plan without some other things of very great moment being done, I should be willing to part with my holdings at the first opportunity."

HARD KNOTS TIED

Four out of every five marriages in Champaign County are successful, it records in the offices of the Clerk of Courts of that county for the year 1924, are correct.

There were 162 licenses issued and thirty-two divorces in the year. There were forty nine petitions for divorce filed during the year.

BISHOPS WILL PASS ON APPEAL OF EX-BISHOP FROM HERESY CHARGE

Cleveland, O., Jan. 13.—Presided over by the Venerable Bishop W. A. Leonard of the diocese of Ohio, court of review consisting of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church was constituted here today to pass upon the appeal of Bishop William Montgomery Brown, retired bishop of Arkansas and known as the "bishop of the bolsheviks" from the judgment of the trial court which last spring found him guilty of teaching doctrines not in accordance with those taught by the church. Sentence upon the retired churchman has not yet been passed.

In addition to Bishop Leonard the court, which will pass upon issues of issues of C nonical law includes: Bishop William C. Brown Virginia; Bishop C. B. Brewster, Connecticut; Bishop David Seasmans, Louisiana; Bishop Irving P. Johnson, Colorado; Bishop Wm. W. Webb, Wisconsin; Bishop R. H. Nelson, Albany and Bishop James De Wolf Peirce, Rhode Island.

Joseph Schartz, of Dayton, Ohio, chief counsel for Bishop Brown, was to ask that a court of appeals be constituted at which the issues of fact raised by Bishop Brown at his trial last spring might again be considered. A brief filed with the court of review contends that the churchman was convicted of contravening documents not clearly defined in the church standards, nor even set forth by the court.

Charles L. Dibble, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, church advocate, and "chief prosecuting attorney" contends in a brief that the church is under no necessity of justifying the doctrines but that those ordained to teach and preach are bound by their ordination vows to adhere to them.

Bishop Brown's conviction grew out of teachings contained in a book "Christianism and Communism," which has attained a large circulation and been translated into many foreign languages.

DIGNITARIES OF CATHOLIC CHURCH ASSIST IN LAST RITES FOR ARCHBISHOP MOELLER

Cincinnati, Jan. 13.—The largest number of high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church ever gathered together in this city, attended the funeral services at St. Peter's cathedral Tuesday morning for the most Rev. Harry Moeller, late archbishop of Cincinnati.

Hundreds of priests, seminarians, members of various secular and lay religious orders and those of the public who possessed tickets of admission crowded to its doors the vast edifice which for 20 years had been the seat of Archbishop Moeller's diocesan jurisdiction, as the pontifical requiem high mass was sung by his Eminence

Patrick Cardinal Hayes of New York City. Among the mourners was the Rt. Rev. Pietro Purnpinski Biondi, apostolic delegate to Washington and official representative of the pope. The most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, preached the funeral sermon. Moist eyed and spellbound the audience listened to his eloquence as he recited the virtues of the dead churchman.

After the church services the body was placed in a mausoleum at the new St. Joseph's cemetery, Price Hill. Thousands of persons were unable to enter the cathedral and remained outside unmindful of the falling snow waiting in the hope of getting to see the body.

SOVIETS CHEERED BY HUGHES ACTION

Moscow, Jan. 13.—Soviet government circles here greatly cheered by news of the resignation of Secretary Hughes today were disposed to regard his retirement as the prelude to Russian-American understanding. Hughes' name always has been an anathema to soviet Russia.

His resignation here is attributed to pressure from financial interests in the United States who favor some working arrangement with soviet Russia.

CHECK WORKER IS SENT TO ASYLUM

Charles A. Icenhower, New Burlington, was committed to the Dayton State Hospital by Probate Judge S. C. Wright Monday at the request filed in Probate court when he was adjudged to be a lunatic.

Icenhower was arrested Saturday and an affidavit charging him with feeble-mindedness was made out against him, growing out of proof that he had been passing checks without funds. The affidavit of feeble-mindedness was dismissed at the request to be replaced by one of lunacy.

PREDICT HERRIOT CABINET WILL BE OUSTED AT SESSION

Paris, Jan. 13.—The overthrow of the Herriot cabinet, during the present session, which reconvened today was freely predicted by members when they gathered this afternoon in the chamber and corridors.

The specific allegations which members were predicting would be brought against Premier Herriot and others of the cabinet were these:

- 1.—Inharmonious relations with the Vatican.
- 2.—Discontent in Alsace, because of interference with religious education.
- 3.—Failure of the Franco-German commercial negotiations which closed the German markets to Alsation exporters.
- 4.—Recognition of the soviets and alleged negligence in suppressing communism in France.

Premier Herriot planned today to make his first public appearance since his illness of more than a month.

Today's session of parliament was merely formal and for the election of officers and the disposal of routine matters.

MANY VISITORS HAVE TELEPHONE OPERATION EXPLAINED ON FIRST DAY OF VISITORS' WEEK

Curious questions! Exclamations of awe! Satisfied subscribers! Thus "Telephone Week" was ushered into Xenia yesterday.

Unusual interest in personally observing the operation of a telephone central office was displayed by a large number of visitors to the local office, according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company here.

"We took our guests over our entire plant and explained all the mysteries away. It was almost as much fun for us as it was for the visitors." If the same interest continues to be manifest throughout the remainder of the week, the telephone offices being open to the public from 8:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. until Saturday night, it is probable that the 300,000 visitors mark set by the company will be reached, Mr. Cleaver said. Reports from other places indicate the same interest as shown here.

Telephone people here were greatly amused by some of the remarks that were heard. Among them were: "I didn't see even one of those operators chewing gum."

time to read. Are they always that busy?"

"What's in those small holes they put those iron things in. Is that a part of the machinery?"

The speed with which the operators connected and disconnected subscribers while the visitors watched never failed to bring exclamations of wonder. The fact, too, that the girls never looked around but always kept their eyes on the switchboards caused new ideas concerning telephone operators to fill the minds of the watchers. "We believe," Manager Cleaver said, "that a visit to a telephone office will do more toward establishing better relations between the public and our employees than all the books that might be written. Our people are always busy, always trying to please and succeeding in but less than 99 cases out of every hundred. We want the people to see us at work and we wish we could interrupt service sufficiently to introduce every operator to every visitor. Of course that cannot be done, but when the visitor departs after a trip through one of our offices, he or she has a new respect for those who make American telephone service the standard of the world."

MONEY DEMAND HAS INCREASED CIRCULATIONS

Washington, Jan. 13.—Heavy demand for "cold cash" increases money circulations $330,000,000, between August and January, bringing the total now in the hands of the public to approximately $4,992,000,000, the treasury department announced today.

The larger demand for currency has been in response, in addition to seasonal influences, to an increase in payroll requirements of industrial establishments and to a larger volume of business at somewhat higher prices," the federal reserve board declared.

The growth of the volume of money in circulation has been accompanied by a continuation of an increase in demand deposits of banks. Early in 1924 deposits accumulated but were relatively inactive.

Demand for federal reserve credit increased during the last half of the year by $500,000,000 and January 1 credit in use amounted to substantially the same figure as a year ago, according to the board.

Volume of federal reserve note circulation was increased about $100,000,000 while cash reserves of reserve banks declined $275,000,000.

While earnings assets of the reserve banks have shown no net increase since the spring of 1922, loans and investments of member banks have increased about $5,000,000,000 and are at present the highest on record," the statement said.

Figures showed total investments of all bonds of the United States approximately $46,000,000,000 an increase of nearly two billion dollars since 1923.

"The extremely low level of money rates in New York in the last half of 1924 has been a factor in encouraging a large volume of capital flotations, both domestic and foreign," board officials said.

Capital flotations during the year were larger than at any time since the war.

Foreign flotations exceeding a billion dollars were the largest on record by several hundred million dollars and twice as large as corresponding flotations during the same period in London. Foreign borrowers in addition, established large credits with banks in the United States.

"The board asserted that domestic securities exceeded two billion dollars last year.

BANK COMMISSIONER INVOLVED IN KANSAS CHARGES OF BRIBERY

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 13.—Filing of an ouster suit by Atty. Gen. Griffith against Carl J. Peterson, state bank commissioner, scheduled for this morning, is the latest phase of the pardon bribery investigation which resulted in the arrest yesterday of former Governor Jonathan M. Davis and his son Russell.

The attorney general's action followed his demand late yesterday that the banking commissioner resign after Griffith had shown Peterson an affidavit sworn by A. L. Oswald, an attorney of Hutchinson which stated that Peterson had been involved in an alleged "deal" to obtain the pardon of Walter S. Grundy, banker of Hutchinson. In the meantime, under the leadership of James Finley, chairman of the legislative investigating committee of the last session of the legislature, plans went forward this morning for an inquiry into the entire pardon situation under the Davis administration.

A concurrent resolution for the investigation will be introduced in both houses this afternoon. Former Governor Davis and his family retired last night to their farm in Bourbon County, where they are in seclusion.

There is revival here this morning of talk that a special grand jury will be called. Officials close to the investigation, say it is possible that a portion of the grand jury will be circulated to give an official clearing house for the mass of pardon bribery rumors that are filling the capital.

Fred W. Pollman, banker of Lacygne, whose evidence resulted in the arrest of Davis and his son, was expected here today to return his pardon to Governor Ben S. Paulen.

WIFE HAS INSPIRED FORMER PUGILIST TO GET EDUCATION

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 10.—Fred R. Wedge, who has just announced his intention of abandoning an academic career to become an evangelist, has led one of the most interesting and picturesque of lives.

Born in the woods of Wisconsin, near Lake Superior, in 1880, Wedge grew up to young manhood with but the barest elements of a rudimentary education. His father died when he was 2 1/2 years of age, and his mother when he was eight.

At twenty Wedge became a welter-weight prizefighter and remained in the ring six years.

When he was twenty-two young Wedge fell in love with a frail young woman choir singer. This girl freed him with the ambition to educate himself. She assisted him in doing the work of the grammar school grades at home after he had completed his work at the lumber camp. Later he took high school work and entered the University of Nebraska in 1910, marrying the choir singer about the same time. She is the daughter of Dr. John Tracy, of Omaha, Neb. Wedge was licensed a Presbyterian minister from the Southern Arizona Presbytery in 1911.

During the war Wedge served as boxing instructor at Camp Grant, Ill. Here he contracted tuberculosis and was discharged from the Army. With the words of doctors that he stood very little chance of recovery still ringing in his ears, Wedge, his wife and their son went to Texas and Arizona where, after a heroic battle for his life, he fully regained his health.

Continually aided by his wife, Wedge entered the University of Arizona at Tucson and graduated with an A. B. degree in 1920. For a short time that year he was superintendent of schools at Benson, Arizona.

In 1921 Wedge entered Harvard and remained in Cambridge one year. He then returned to Arizona and was fully ordained a Presbyterian minister in 1922.

Wedge is now working for his Ph.D. degree at the University of California. He expects to have it by next May.

While working for this Ph.D. degree Wedge wrote a thesis on the I. W. W. and exposed the lack of religious influence back of such anti-social organizations. He lived for months among the I. W. W. in order to get accurate information.

After graduating from the University of California in May, Wedge plans to remain in the Bay region, where he will take up his duties as an evangelist.

NIGHT COUGH QUICKLY RELIEVED

RESTORED "LOST VIGOR" IN 24 HOURS

Lost vigor, deadened senses and nerves, and the most depressing and half-alive feeling need not be dreaded any longer since the discovery of Mando Formula. Now it is possible for those who feel "prematurely old" to become "rejuvenated youth," often in a day's time, with Mando Formula, is the amazing statement of one who has taken the treatment. This famous discovery is bringing "renewed youth" and "strength" to thousands where everything else had failed. Every-thing else had failed. Every-thing else had failed.

"I want to say that my 'lost vigor' was restored and 'gladly renewed' in twenty-four hours," says Dr. R. Pearce of Kansas City, Mo. "Today I am 76, but I don't feel a day over 40. I felt I was an old, worn-out man; but now I am enjoying a remarkable 'glad restoration' and am convinced my 'rejuvenation' is complete and permanent. May God's blessing rest on the discoverer of such a boon to humanity."

This wonderful formula, prepared by one of the largest laboratories in the world and generally known as Mando, is easily used at home and seems to work like magic in its readiness on people of all ages and sexes, no matter what your age or occupation, no matter what you have tried if you are lacking in "vigor" and the "vital force of youth" we are so confident Mando Formula will restore you that we offer to send a large $3.50 bottle for only $1.95 on 14 days' trial. If the results are not satisfactory and you are not more than pleased in every way, it costs you nothing.

Send no money—just your name and address to F. L. Carlin, 721 Baltimore Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., and the treatment will be mailed at once. Simply pay the postman plus postage on arrival. Use it according to simple directions. If at the end of 14 days you are not showing "wonderful improvement" and "rejuvenation," just send it back and your money will be refunded without question. This offer is fully guaranteed, so write today and give this "remarkable formula" a trial. Adv.

Mrs. Elizabeth Draves

Mrs. Elizabeth Draves of 633 Plymouth St., Toledo, said: "There is nothing to equal Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a tonic and nerve-vitalizer for women. I was suffering from inward weakness which completely undermined my health. I was so nervous I could not sleep, and if I stooped over I would be so blind and dizzy I would have to sit down until I recovered from the spell. I had no appetite, lost in weight, suffered from bearing pains, and was so weak I could not do my work. Reading what 'Favorite Prescription' had done for other women, I thought it might help me, so I began taking it. It completely restored my nerves and relieved me of all my weakness. I could eat and sleep well and grew strong. Then I did all my own work, something I could not do before." All druggists. Tablets or liquid. Send 10c for trial pkg. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and write for free advice.

FEDERAL LAND BANKS—

ARE ORGANIZED UNDER FEDERAL CHARTERS
MAKE LOANS ON FARM LAND UP TO 50% OF VALUE
GET ADDITIONAL CAPITAL BY SELLING OWN BONDS

The securities of Federal Land Bankers are not guaranteed by the Federal government in any way.

Federal Land Bankers made loans to farmers in amounts of not less than $100.00, nor more than $10,000, based on a 50 per cent. appraised value of the land. When a Federal Land Bank extends credit to farmers, it takes mortgages on the farms. As the loans are made the capital of the bank is tied up. To provide additional capital the Land Bank sells its own bonds which are secured by the mortgages on the farms to which the Land Bank originally extended credit. The security back of the Federal Land Bank bonds consists of many large and small mortgages on farms, lands the surplus account of the bank, and its original capital. There are twelve Federal Land Banks created by act of Congress and in case of a default in payment by one of its bonds the loss is pro rated among the other eleven Land Banks.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Governor Donahey, in his message to the State Legislature Monday, outlined an ambitious program of activities for that body. He preached economy, urged that the state live within its income and recommended important changes in legislation affecting points of interest to every citizen of the state.

Although he is still dealing with a Legislature largely of opposite politics, there is a promise of harmony, between the executive and the law-makers for his second term of office.

Legislators, beginning their deliberations at this term have resolved upon different tactics in handling the political differences. Instead of antagonism they promise every effort to co-operate with the governor during their terms. This should not only prove gratifying to the governor but should bring forth good fruit for the state.

Quibbling, because of political differences, failed to produce anything of value in the last General Assembly. Now harmony, consideration and a spirit of co-operation will have their inning and the results should be much more satisfactory.

The message of the governor shows that the public utilities commission, is still an interesting bone for him to pick over.

His suggestion for an appropriation to secure expert advice for the commission in settling utilities controversies may be a wise one. The expenditure, in this case, might prove an actual saving to utility patrons by resulting in just disposition of appeals. The experiment might be one worth trying.

The governor's attack on the election registration system has its recommendation of economy, in saving the salaries paid poll officials, but it will be greeted by a protest from the cities.

The governor suggests the registration be held only every four years. In some wards in a city the entire population would change in that time, leaving many not qualified to vote. And when, through a technicality or for other reasons, any citizen is deprived of the opportunity to cast his ballot, the resulting howl of protest will be heard for miles. This, whether they take the trouble to vote or not.

The broadening of primary laws to permit independent voters or those who do not wish to express a political preference the chance to express a choice for nomination, seems a just plan.

The suggestion that chiefs of police be removed from the pale of civil service, making them directly responsible for their positions to the mayor or manager, would involve the position in the old toils of the political system. It would serve to keep down the men in the ranks, destroy ambition and desire for police service, and in some cases would result in a constant change of police officials that would work to the detriment of police department efficiency.

The governor's suggestion to have common pleas judges of less populous counties occupy the benches in counties where the dockets are crowded instead of appointing extra judges, is already in use but is far from effective. It results in a system where the county judges of one county are constantly working in other counties. What the governor should have suggested, if possible, was a scheme to make the common pleas judges of the more populous counties go to work. Lagging justice in the cities is usually the result of too little work on the bench. An official "prod" might serve to better relieve the situation.

SEES A REAL AMERICANISM

Americanism, that much used and much misunderstood term, is defined in Century Magazine, by Glenn Frank, its editor.

Americanism must be selective, rather than sentimental, says Mr. Frank, that is, it must be an enthusiasm rather than an obligation.

"Patriotism is a result rather than a cause of sound national life," he says. "The professional patriots put the cart before the horse. The worthiest patriotism is not merely the will to defend that arises in war-time. It is that prideful sense of satisfaction that comes to a creative people when they are working successfully for the increase, the enrichment, and the spiritual unity of their national life, a sense of satisfaction that merges imperceptibly into a determination further to develop and faithfully to defend the common life they are creating."

Mr. Frank gives six things that Americanism is not, and he shows why. They are:

Americanism is not an uncritical belief in the goodness of all things American just because they are American.

Americanism is not whistling to keep up courage.

Americanism is not a matter of race.

Americanism is not belief in the infallibility of the majority.

Americanism is not slavery to the opinions of the fathers.

He ends his article by saying: "I suspect that, if we found him who is doing his best for America and saying the least about his Americanism."—Ohio State Journal.

TELLING IT TO THE CHILDREN

Well, you see I met your mother at a wedding, long ago, and though I was four and twenty, up to then I didn't know that in all our busy city, which I've traveled up and down, there was such a lovely creature, with such lustrous eyes of brown.

But the minute that I saw her, I just stared and stared and stared. And right then I should have hugged her and have kissed her, if I dared!

She was acting as the bridesmaid, I was best man for the groom, and of course the bride was lovely, but the loveliest in the room. Wasn't just then getting married? For I couldn't keep from staring at your mother, I declare.

And she blushed and gave permission, when Sunday evening came I bought a box of candy, with a very famous name.

And I went up there to see her and her Pa and Ma were there; And I wanted so to kiss her—but of course I didn't dare.

Now that's how I met your mother—and 'twas twenty years ago, and there was another wedding—just the one I'd longed to know, for one lovely Sunday evening when I went up there to call.

I caught her up and kissed her, as we lingered right then to marry—It was love that made me bold—Now that's how I met your mother—but don't tell her that I told.

FOLLOW FATHERS

Cadiz, Jan. 13—Sheriff John Quigley, Republican, and Commissioner John Rea, Democrat, are following in the footsteps of their fathers as Harrison County officials. Quigley has just taken up the duties of the office held by his father, Albert Quigley, 40 years ago, who was active in Harrison County politics following his return from the Civil War. Rea is the first Democrat elected as a commissioner of the County since his father, A. J. Rea, was similarly chosen forty-three years ago. The county is strongly Republican.

COUGHS

Persistent, racking coughing, which by rapidly weakening your entire system lays you open to more dangerous infections, can be checked often with the first dose of that old-time tried and proved remedy—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. And there's a reason. Doctors say there is nothing like pine-tar to quickly loosen and remove the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing, while the honey both gives a pleasant taste and helps soothe the irritation. It is often astonishing how quickly this combination relieves the stubbornest cough.

But be sure you get the original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and no substitute. Dr. Bell's has been known for over a quarter of a century as the best. It is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine-tar, honey and other quick-acting healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—fine for spasmodic croup. If you want the best, a medicine that often relieves the severest cough overnight, make sure you get Dr. Bell's. Only 30c at any good druggist's.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

Today's Talks

THIS BEAUTIFUL WORLD

Life is more than a "lovely adventure" as some would have it. It is a serious proposition to most of us in which we reach into the very depths of all experience that we may rise strong for any daily task.

Withal this world is a very beautiful place. And the more one has gone through pain and suffering drunk from the bitter cup of disappointment and loss, the more is all beauty loved and appreciated.

To me the two most beautiful things in this world are a beautiful soul and a beautiful flower.

If my wisdom was a hundred times more than it is and my experience over the earth also a hundred times as vast as it is now, I would still marvel at the beauty of flowers.

It does seem as though flowers were the visible expressions of God's thoughts planted here and there and everywhere, so that everybody might see and love and learn.

No matter where you see beauty, be it the exquisite carving in a piece of furniture, the delicate tooling and placing of leathers in a hand bound book, the studied colors of a picture or the natural blending of beauty in a sunset—it is the same, always inspiring and full of the good that makes this world a place in which men are able to be brave.

Our characters are shaped by our view point. And if we have vision we can see right over the unpleasant and sordid and shape our minds and hearts so that our feet may lead us into pleasant and happy paths.

We must look for beauty, however. It is everywhere. And the more we look for it the more we are sure to have of it.

GOAL IS FIXED

A budget of $5,500 has been set as the goal of the annual Social Service League drive for funds, to be launched at the banquet next Tuesday evening at Central High School.

The city has been divided into 125 districts, to be covered by the solicitors, all of the districts being small enough to cover in an hour's time.

The solicitors and patrons of the league are to be inspired with the needs of the league at the annual banquet where plans for the drive will be outlined.

Indorsed by Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz; County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman, the Parent-Teacher Associations, the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

Mrs. Emma McCalmont made a report of the anti-tubercular seal sale as totalling $670 in Xenia City. Miss Bertha E. Trebein reported a return of $176.83 from the free will offering made at the city streets, Christmas week. She said that many people received by the singers of the Christmas had expressed a high appreciation of the beautiful custom of singing carols during the Yuletide in Xenia.

The league voted to send a letter of thanks to V. L. Faires and his manual training class of seventy boys at Central High School, who made and donated seventy toys to the league at Christmas.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE HAS BUSY CHRISTMAS PERIOD

Christmas month was a busy month at the Social Service League and 683 calls were received at the headquarters during that period. The calls included both those who asked for relief and those who brought cheer for the unfortunate.

The following disbursements were made: $32.45 worth of donated food; $41 worth of bedding and other household equipment; $168 worth of clothing and shoes, the larger amount of this being given to school children; $48 worth of milk for the tubercular and undernourished; $10.60 was spent for medicine, dental work and equipment; one stranded man was given a meal.

Besides co-operating with the organizations of Xenia the league did work for the following out-of-town societies: The Indianapolis Welfare Society, the Ohio Public Health Association and the Hope Cottage Rescue Home, Cincinnati.

The Second U. P. Church, Trinity and First M. E. Churches and the Twentieth Century Club made garments and comforts for the organization.

On hundred and sixty-four persons and twenty organizations donated the following cheer to the poor: two tons of coal, $104 in cash, 225 pounds of candy, ten pounds nuts, four dozen oranges, fifty pounds flour, 250 toys, twenty-seven story books, fifty pounds cottage cheese, ten gallons milk, twenty-one loaves of bread, eight chickens, one and one-half bushel apples, thirty-eight bottles salad dressing, buns, jellies, 410 garments and many other things.

"But the greatest thing given out by the league is the service and cheer and encouragement brought to the fainting hearts of the poor by the hundreds of people who are supporting the league," Mrs. L. R. Robertson, executive secretary of the league, said in commenting on the month's work.

YOUNG FRANK GOTCH BEATS BULL GOSSARD IN MAIN EVENT OF EAGLES WRESTLING SHOW

By L. J. WONES

The wrestling matches staged at Eagles Hall Monday night were rather short but chuck full of action especially the main go and the preliminary. Curly Wiones of Cleveland, who was to have grappled in the main event with Jack Armstrong, sent word that it would be impossible for him to work as he has a bad case of pleurisy. Promoter Carlin then secured "Cyclone" O'Dell of Chicago, who is now staying at Springfield, to grapple with Armstrong. He shifted them from the main event to the semi-windup.

Armstrong won the match taking the second and third falls in four minutes. O'Dell won the first fall with a leg split in a little over four minutes of fast grappling. The second and third falls were a trifle slow and the Newark lad won the second with a toe hold while he won the match with a pin hold.

The main go between Young Frank Gatch, champion of the Middle West and "Bull" Gossard, London, was the best go of the evening. Gatch won when the scissors he applied to Gossard broke the London grappler's ribs and tore several ligaments loose. Gossard was several pounds heavier and much stronger than the London man and did not have to stretch himself in winning it seemed.

Gossard displayed his usual rough form and his pet grip was a toehold which by the way won the first fall for him after twenty-four minutes of tussling. Gatch then made a nice comeback and won second fall with a body scissors in five minutes. Gossard said he would like to meet the proposed loop the use of the Central High School gymnasium two nights each week for the league purposes and Gatch said that he would.

In the event they are matched again

Crabbe and Speaker Silver of the House of Representatives have accepted invitations of the Ohio Council of Columbus to attend the dinner and give addresses. All members of the legislature are being invited by the clergymen to their respective constituencies.

Advance registration two weeks before the opening date of the convention exceeds the total attendance at last year's meeting. The banquet will be held on the evening of the second day of the convention, Tuesday, January 27.

The convention proper will be devoted to discussion of various phases of church work in which ministers of all denominations have a common interest, led by pastors of practical experience in the respective fields.

The Pastors' convention is an annual event, held under the auspices of the Ohio Council of Churches, which comprise sixteen Protestant denominations. This year, full responsibility for arrangement of the program and promoting attendance was left to a committee chosen by the ministers of the state.

OUT GOES ROUGE NATURAL BLOOMS GLOW IN CHEEKS

While the truth that 40% of our school children were half-starved caused fear to clutch at mothers' hearts, it proved a blessing to kids and mothers alike.

Physicians and teachers recommended cod liver oil. Mothers saw difficulties ahead. Then, at this critical juncture, came CocoCod—pure Norwegian cod liver oil in a new easy-to-take form. Strength-building vitamins are a part of this preparation which has the taste of rich cocoa. Children who rebel at cod liver oil take it gladly and thrive on it.

Noting its wonderful effects on the kiddies, mothers have discarded rouge and are cultivating the natural bloom of roses in cheeks formerly pallid. Fathers, prematurely aged through overwork and under-feeding, lacking in rich blood and nerve energy, are finding new zest in life through CocoCod.

Starving in the midst of plenty! That is what medical men say is the trouble with us today. Our food is deficient in vitamin elements and modern cooking renders it weaker. CocoCod simply feeds the starving system back to health. It contains no drugs, no alcohol, dope or chemical substance; only pure Norwegian cod liver oil, food extracts, and the taste of rich cocoa.

Physicians and teachers who are informed regarding it, as well as local druggists who distribute it, recommend it highly. But be sure you get CocoCod, the new easy-to-take cod liver oil preparation.—Adv.

MERCHANTS OPPOSE AD SOLICITORS

The Advertisers' Association of Urbana has come into being as a result of continued and all too frequent solicitation of merchants to advertise in exceptional mediums. A recent canvass of the business district of Urbana by two cock book promoters is said to have precipitated the move.

The new association agrees "not to advertise in any cock book, programs, periodicals or other mediums unless the medium is indorsed by the association."

Merchants are constantly solicited for extra advertising, other than their regular newspaper appropriation, it is said, which has put them "up in arms."

PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO RIFLE THEFT

Six Xenia colored men charged with stealing government rifles from the store room of Wilberforce University pleaded not guilty to the charges when arraigned before Andrew S. Iddings, United States Commissioner Monday afternoon and were released.

The six men, William Anderson, Charles A. Paul Rountree, H. C. Scott, Clarence Sullinger and E. L. Carlman were arrested Monday morning by Carson Pratt, Dayton, Deputy United States Marshall and his deputy, J. H. Wagner assisted by the sheriff's office.

Anderson is accused of stealing the rifles and his five companions are said to have bought them.

AN OPERATION RECOMMENDED

Avoided by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I cannot give too much praise to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me. My mother gave it to me when I was a girl 14 years old and since then I have taken it when I feel run down or tired. I took it for three months before my two babies were born for I suffered with my back and had spells as if my heart was affected, and it helped me a lot. The doctors told me at one time that I would have to have an operation. I thought I would try 'Pinkham's,' as I call it, first. In two months I was all right and had no operation. I firmly believe 'Pinkham's' cured me. Everyone who saw me after that remarked that I looked so well. I only have to take medicine occasionally, not but I always keep a couple of bottles by me. I recommend it to women who speak to me about their health. I have also used your Sanative Wash and like it very much."—Mrs. E. GOULD, 4000 East Side Boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal.

Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been performed.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO PUT ON GOOD SOLID FLESH

Eminent European Specialist, Dr. Caramelli, says: "If underweight, worn-out, or run-down, follow this advice; and watch results:

It is not what you eat or how much you eat but insufficient gland action (due to advancing years, over-work, sickness, or worry) that makes you flabby, bony, and scrawny looking. Worn out, dried up glands make it impossible to form flesh and strength. Yet many people who eat less have good firm flesh, normal weight, and are full of life and energy because their glands are working full force.

Formerly the recognized power of fresh organic glands to put on flesh that stays firm, and makes nervous, anemic folks strong and even tempered was confined to rich people. But now everyone who has tried doctoring with ordinary tonics and medicines can purchase a combination of pure organic glands, phosphates (for the Nerves) and iron (for the blood) for a few cents at any drug store, merely asking for Kath. This Kath is known to rebuild exhausted glands without the use of drugs.

Make This Test:
First weigh and measure yourself. Next take the small tablets of glands, roots and herbs (as found

2. First Feast in Heorot

(Drawing: Hrothgar's Costume.)

It is to his people and thanes for feasting in the hall, Heorot, on that night when first King Hrothgar opened it to his people and thanes for feasting. The sun had scarcely set when many brave warriors filed into the hall to feast and receive the gifts which their king had promised for their help in building this greatest of feast halls.

Hrothgar and his fair queen, Wealhtheow, came into the hall when all the company had gathered there. Both were dressed in raiment fitting the rulers of the War-Danes, and they walked to the great throne in Heorot, taking their seats—after which the thanes and people also were seated.

Then did King Hrothgar cause his pages to bring many gifts to the throne which he, Hrothgar, did dispense to his loyal subjects. Thus did the feasting begin. And none did think of that foul fiend who even now was roaming the fens and marshes, that son of Cain called Grendel.

(Who is Grendel? What is he going to do? Lots of excitement tomorrow.)

MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Makes an Economical Clothes Budget

By Jay V. Jay

Mitzi is going over her wardrobe at the beginning of a new year and on the verge of a new season. "I'm tired of it Polly," she says about this handsome satin dress with its lace yoke, "if you want it, it is yours."

Of course Polly does.

Mitzi is willing to try anything once. Just to show how really in earnest she is you can see how her budget starts. The hardest thing about a budget is not making it—but keeping to it. Tomorrow we will show you how Mitzi really does carry out her economical intentions.

RAISE OBJECTION TO TRACTION APPRAISAL

An objection to appraisal of the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Traction Company at present was filed in United States District Court in Dayton Monday in the form of a memorandum by the First Wisconsin Trust Company.

Authorization for the appraisal has not been given by Federal Judge Smith Hickenlooper but it is understood that he was being asked for permission to spend nearly $750 for one.

The complainants claim, that no purpose will be served unless the court is going to order sale of the properties immediately. The traction line is under receivership.

Receivers are seeking an appraisal with the view of bringing the road to the attention of possible buyers, it is thought, although nothing definite in this regard has been filed.

BUYS INTEREST IN PIQUA THEATERS

Two of the theaters are now being used and the third is dark, and the theater building will be sold soon to be converted into a business building. Mr. Ridenour, who was formerly connected in an editorial capacity with the Gazette and the Republican is now president of the Piqua Call Company, publishers of the Piqua Daily Call.

BRINGING UP FATHER

The Husband Tamer by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE protests to her husband, ANDREW CLEVE, a young lawyer, that he has made her a tamer of other women's husbands, forcing her to do so much entertaining of his clients that he sacrifices her to his business. She goes on a visit to her sister.

CAROL WILLOUGHBY, who, with her husband, KEITH WILLOUGHBY, lives in a country club colony near Chicago. But Keith, like Andrew, seeks to use Patricia's charm as an asset, trying to persuade her to intercede in his behalf with GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, whom she has met through Andrew. Patricia is disturbed by Keith's attentions to ISOBEL DRAKE, the country club widow. Finding that she can come between them by yielding to Keith's urging that she invite Hewitt to dinner, she does so, reluctantly, as Hewitt has avowed his love for her.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXXIII—FATE'S CRUEL TRICKS
PATRICIA had not planned what excuse she would give her sister for departing so suddenly for New York so soon after her arrival from there. She could think only of getting away from Gregory Hewitt and his love-making, and Isobel Drake and her attempts to win Keith from Carol.

VIOLET DARE

"I'll warn Carol once more before I go," she decided, as she went down to breakfast, "and then I'm through. If I'd stayed on here, I'd have done all I could, but I simply can't do any more now. Keith's old enough to have some sense—and so's Carol, for that matter!"

But she had no need to make excuses for her imminent departure, since that departure was indefinitely delayed. She was still at breakfast, gloomily eating oatmeal, which she detested, and wondering why Keith didn't realize that she might like to see one of the newspapers that he had monopolized, when a telegram was brought to her.

"Sailing today Berengaria," it read. "Important business England. Have sub-let apartment; better stay where you are; my return indefinite." And it was signed, "Andrew."

Patricia glared at the yellow paper for a moment, then blinked rapidly to keep back the tears. Andy was going abroad without her! To stay indefinitely! He knew how she adored England, where she hadn't been since they went there on their honeymoon; he knew how she loved to travel, and then he went rushing off like this, without even saying that he wished she were going, too! She could have followed him on the next steamer—if he'd wanted her to. For the moment she quite forgot her ultimatum of a short-time before—that she didn't want to live with him any more unless he let her settle down and have a home. She forgot everything except the appalling fact that Andy didn't seem to love her any more, and was rushing off to England.

In desperation she tried to get him on the long distance telephone. He could not be reached at his office. She tried Linda Boyce next—surely Linda would have seen him recently, and could tell whether he was looking well or not. But Linda's maid answered. Mrs. Boyce was not at home, she was sailing that morning for England, on the Berengaria.

"She's going on the same steamer with Andy!" wailed Patricia, and putting her hand down on her simply desperate. Andy's gone off to England without me." She could hardly speak the words without crying.

Patricia dressed for the street as quickly as possible.

"Has he now! Well, lunch with me and we'll tear him to shreds."

"Oh, but I—I'm going shopping with my sister."

"I'll take Carol," exclaimed Keith, hurrying across the room to her side. "Go with him; you may get a chance to say a good word for me."

"I'll say no good words for anybody, Keith Willoughby," she told him as she hung up the receiver, half-laughing and half-crying. "I've said too many for everybody, it seems to me."

And all the way into town her thoughts whirled like a pinwheel. Andy and Linda Boyce—their ship would be pulling out just now, and they'd be planning about seats at the table and deck chairs near together. Gregory Hewitt and herself—well, she might be playing with fire, but Andy had touched the match that started the blaze, when he introduced Hewitt and told her "be nice to him."

"My life just isn't worth living," she told herself, heedless of Carol's voice eagerly discussing fashions. "I might as well wreck it completely. Andy's shown me that he doesn't love me any more!"
